HERE'S WHAT YOU CAN DO

EDUCATION

- Docent: Present prepared programs to students in grades 1 through 6 after training sessions with Neal Gittleman, DPO Artistic Director.
- Scriptwriting: Help prepare PowerPoint scripts and props for school presentations.
- Scholarships/Grants: Help update application forms for scholarships and grants offered to young musicians; review applications.
- Ushering: Seat student groups at DPAA education concerts.
- Scheduling: Schedule docent school visits.
- Q the Music: Set up room & assist the instructors as needed for this daily after school activity at Ruskin Elementary School.
- Family Concerts: Help plan and execute pre-concert activities for children.
- Auditions: Register students at youth orchestra auditions; direct them to proper rooms.
- It's Instrumental: Collect donated instruments from Grismer Tire stores and deliver to WDPR once a year.
- Volunteer Seminars: Coordinate biannual seminars (location, set up room and refreshments).
- Refreshments: Provide refreshments for various events and/or assist as servers to DPYO musicians prior to their concert.

FUNDRAISING

- Designers' Show House & Gardens: Help plan and execute the DPVA's biennial fundraiser to showcase one of Dayton's historic homes.
- Fundraising Events: Help plan fundraising events.

MEMBERSHIP

- Member Social Events: Plan Member Social Events determined for the year.
- Outreach: Recruit and welcome new members. Engage members in activities and help publicize the DPVA to area communities and clubs. Host membership table at each of the DPO concerts.
- Mailings: Assist with mailings as needed.

PROMOTION

- Writing: Write articles for the DPVA's newsletter, website, or other promotional materials.
- Public Relations: Help secure newspaper and television publicity for DPVA projects.
- Social Media: Help maintain social media accounts such as Facebook and Instagram and post new updates of DPVA activities.
